Blessing for Lighting the Third Advent Candle

Prayer leader: Oh God, we have nothing to fear, for You are in our midst.

When we gather together You are with us; when we raise our voices in song or prayer,
You are here.

Now we wait in hope for the completion of what You have begun in us.

Bless this light.

Let it be for us a sign of rejoicing!

As the light grows week by week, so also our expectation and hope that Your kingdom is come.

Let this light fill us with the knowledge of what is right, what is good, what is just.

Let this light fill us with the courage to do what we know we are called to do.

Who are we, Lord, that You should rejoice in us?

You are the Love that chose to make us holy by dwelling with us and in us.

Bless this light we light in joyful gratitude!

Prepare in our hearts your way of righteousness, peace, and love.
We ask this through Jesus the Christ,
who was, who is, and who is to come,
in unity with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen. (At Home with the Word, adapted)

CHRISTMAS EVE COLLECTION

It's been our tradition to give our Christmas Eve collection to the Des Moines Catholic Worker House. This year the Worker House has designated the collection to help with general operating expenses, e.g., utilities, house maintenance, property taxes, gas and maintenance for the van, etc.

Despite their great resourcefulness, the Worker House still needs around $75,000 a year to pay for the whole operation. This is a remarkably low price, given the immense amount of work that is done and the large number of people that they support. Every week, the Worker House serves between 400 and 600 hot meals, provides groceries and toiletries for some 100 families and individuals, provides blankets, clothes, and coats for dozens, if not hundreds, living outside. They also recently started offering free HIV and hepatitis C testing on Thursdays. During the open hours, guests can take a shower, use the bathroom, get a cup of coffee, watch T.V., or make a phone call, all while having a safe space to occupy.

Because the Catholic Worker House is not a 501(c)3 organization, checks must be made out to "Catholic Worker House" and not to "DMIEC."

December 16, 2018
Third Sunday of Advent

Today is DMARC Emergency Food Pantry Sunday. Envelopes are available for donations to the Des Moines Area Religious Council Emergency Food Pantries. Write checks to “DMARC” or place cash in the envelopes and add to the collection basket. Or, feel free to take an envelope home and mail your donations directly to DMARC.

Service of Remembrance and Hope

Thursday, December 20, 7:00 p.m., St. Timothy's Episcopal Church (1020 24th St., West Des Moines)

The Service of Remembrance and Hope is a time to acknowledge the "blue" feelings often felt at Christmas time, the reasons for them, and offer them to God. As the shortest day and longest night of the year approach, certain memorable phrases come to mind: "long dark night of the soul," "the winter of our discontent," phrases which trigger memories of past experiences, and the pain of present experiences, which can become overwhelming. Find hope and comfort in knowing that you, or those you love, are not alone.
